Motivational Interviewing
Level 1 Foundation
2 Day Skills Workshop

“Motivational Interviewing (MI) is a collaborative person-centred form of guiding - to elicit and strengthen motivation for change”

Miller & Rollnick 2009

Background to Motivational Interviewing

MI was initially shown to be effective in the treatment of addictions in the 1980s, yet the focus since has broadened to behaviour change in general. Given the work of practitioners and researchers including Professors William Miller and Steve Rollnick, MI and its adaptations have successfully been used in health and social care settings, criminal justice, staff wellbeing and as an effective tool within brief interventions.

Is this course for me?

This two day workshop is designed for everyone who wishes to develop their skills in supporting people change their behaviour. It will be of particular interest to those assisting people who wish to change their thinking or behaviour including diet, substance use, exercise routine, medication adherence, criminal behaviour, or any other health or lifestyle behaviour.

This workshop has benefitted staff and practitioners from Human Resources, Criminal Justice, Family & Children Services, Housing Departments, Midwives, Nurses, Youth Workers, Social Workers, General Practitioners, Doctors and Welfare Agencies.
